DATED: March 21, 2022

¹ When briefing the preliminary injunction motion, parties should focus their arguments on the four factors the Court will consider in determining whether a preliminary injunction is warranted: "(1) whether the movant has a strong likelihood of success on the merits; (2) whether the movant would suffer irreparable injury without the injunction; (3) whether issuance of the injunction would cause substantial harm to others; and (4) whether the public interest would be served by the issuance of the injunction." Ne. Ohio Coal. for the Homeless v. Husted, 696 F.3d 580, 590–91 (6th Cir. 2012). The briefs shall comport with the length requirement set forth in the Local Rules.
